a. Action Reported by Field

1. A regular broadcast schedule of four daily transmissions with several repetitions after each scheduled program was maintained during December by the clandestine radio. Because of poor receptivity in Albania during the winter months only two completely new programs a week are prepared. The December broadcasts were heavily jammed and a jammer reaction test indicated that the jamming stations monitored the radio very closely. Beginning 1 January the radio will broadcast one of its two simultaneous transmissions over a lower frequency. Such low frequency broadcasts will be aimed directly at the few Communists and official monitors who have the short-wave receivers needed to pick up the broadcasts.

2. The December programs included the following topics:

- The refusal of UNESCO to grant Albania membership in the UN with the reasons for the action; NCFA comment on this event.
- Criticism of Albanian school teachers by the Tirana newspapers, which reveals the failure of the regime to corrupt the Albanian people.
- The report "Tensions Within the Soviet Captive Countries, Albania" prepared by the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations; Secretary of State Dulles' press release for the 28 November Liberation Day.
- Relations between Nationalist and Communist Chinese Governments.
- Comments on Human Rights Week.
- Agricultural and economic plan failures in Soviet and Satellite states.

3. The November broadcasts covered the Balkan military conference in Athens, Montgomery's visit to Turkey, American aid to Pakistan and Egypt, the agreement on Iranian oil production, German sovereignty, Soviet agricultural plan failures, Anglo-Egyptian agreement, the inspection of the U. S. Sixth Fleet by Secretary of the Navy Thomas, Soviet confusion on the U. S. atoms for peace proposals, and comment on internal developments.
